AUG. 27, THURS. – OLD KAPOK TREE RESTAURANT TOUR & LUNCH During its heyday, from the 60's through the 80's, the Kapok Tree Inn in Clearwater was one of the most over-the-top restaurants in the country. Named after a kapok tree sapling that was brought over from India in the 1870's, the land was later purchased by Richard B. Baumgardner who decided to transform the grove into an ambitious destination restaurant which opened in 1958. Eventually, there were a few different locations, but the Clearwater one was by far the most extravagant of them all and featured a world-renown garden, Renaissance-inspired architecture, impressive waterfalls, beautiful chandeliers and twelve different themed dining rooms! Come enjoy a walk through tour and lunch, on site and relive your wonderful memories of visits in the "good old days"!!...$74
