Day One, Two & Three – There is much to see as we travel through central Florida, and on up the east coast through Jacksonville and into Savannah. Our home for the next three nights is Hampton Inn Savannah Historic District in Savannah, Georgia. To start your day right, you'll find a hot breakfast in a delicious array of wholesome options right in the hotel (included each morning). This tour is deliberately unstructured, allowing every person to decide what they would like to see and when. The location of our hotel allows easy access to many interesting sights. You'll stay in the heart of the Historic District and soak up the splendor that is Savannah. Ideally located, this contemporary Southern style property is located at the corner of Bay and Abercorn Streets and is surrounded by dozens of boutiques & restaurants. Be sure to visit the rooftop pool with spectacular views of the Savannah River and Talmadge Bridge, also a great way to cool off in the summer! The hotel is in the heart of Old Town and one block from the Riverfront area where former Cotton Warehouses, known as Factor's Walk are now being utilized as restaurants, hotels and shops. This beautiful city eloquently displays exquisite ironwork, ancient cobblestones, splendid mansions and picturesque cottages. We will take time for a brief driving tour upon arrival in Savannah to become familiarized with some of Savannah's delights. Then, we will check in to our hotel and have some time to freshen up and settle in a bit. This evening is yours to enjoy as you wish. We are within walking distance of both City Market and Savannah's Riverwalk. City Market is known as "The art and Soul of Savannah". Since the early 1700's, City Market has been the commercial and social center of historic Savannah. Located on the original site of the market used by farmers and traders of all kinds to sell their goods and wares, City Market offers the best of what is old and new in Savannah. This charming, open air-marketplace has a wealth of things to do in Savannah whether you come for the entertainment, to shop, dine or just rest your weary feet. A stroll down Savannah's Riverwalk is not only pleasing, it's truly serene. Walk along the Savannah River; stop in for a bite at any of 21 restaurants or simply enjoy the scenery as you head towards the adjoining River Street, just a short distance away. On River Street, in the heart of historic Savannah, you'll find everything from sweets to teddy bears, art galleries and restaurants housed inside restored Cotton Warehouses. The working harbor—filled with ships of all kinds, horse-drawn carriage rides and street performers add to the enticement of this idyllic waterfront locale. Eat, drink, shop and linger; there's much to see and do on River Street - a lovely oasis of shopping, dining and culture.

While in Savannah, you have two full days of sightseeing on board the Historic Old Town Trolley with on/off privileges. For your convenience, the trolley stop is next to the hotel and the city has many unique points of interest such as: Savannah's unique park squares, which were built prior to the Civil War, the cobblestone and brick streets, row houses and mansions, beautiful Magnolia trees and Live Oak trees draped in Spanish Moss. Also, be sure to notice many of Savannah's beautiful, historic Churches, some may be open for touring. You may want to have lunch (on your own) at either Paula Deen's Lady & Sons or Mrs. Wilkes Dining Room, two very popular local restaurants. Mrs. Wilkes and Mercer House are both at the same trolley stop. The Mercer House was designed by New York architect John S. Norris for General Hugh W. Mercer, great grandfather of Johnny Mercer and is well-known from the movie and book "Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil". For those who enjoy history and exquisite architecture, the Mercer House is a must see. Another type of tour you may want to arrange on your own is a walking tour. There are many interesting things to see within walking distance of our hotel and walking tours are very popular in Savannah.

Day Four - Again, enjoy the hot breakfast provided at our hotel before our departure back to St. Petersburg. We hope you have found Savannah both charming and unforgettable. Thank you for choosing Travel Is Fun Tours for your Savannah Tour.
