DAY ONE – Join Travel Is fun tours for a journey you will never forget. We will depart in the morning to visit Florida's Space Coast. In Titusville We will start our adventures with a delicious lunch at Fishlips! A fantastic restaurant overlooking Port Canaveral. After lunch we will be treated to a behind the scenes look at growing up in Cocoa Beach during the Space Race! Our local tour guide will take us to see the spots famous for entertaining our astronauts as they prepared to go where no man has gone before! After our entertaining and informative tour (with shopping time at Ron Jon), we will depart for our home for two nights, The Titusville Comfort Inn. Our hotel has a nice variety of restaurant choices nearby for your evening meal including Durango Steakhouse, Popeyes or Cracker Barrel. (Dinner not included)

DAY TWO – After a delicious, included Breakfast we start with a visit to The Sands Space History Center, just outside the south gate of Cape Canaveral Space Force Station. The History Center contains historic information and displays for each Launch Complex (LC) at Cape Canaveral Space Force Station. A gift shop and restrooms are available inside the building.

After the Sands Museum we will visit a local shopping area for browsing and lunch! For those who are interested we will make a stop at the Titusville Wizard of Oz Museum (Optional Fee of $28 admission) Discover the magic of the Wizard of Oz! You'll get access to the museum and three immersive experiences, don't miss out on this unforgettable experience! With over 2000 iconic items, delve into the captivating history behind the timeless movie and get up close with the original props used in the 1939 film.

This evening after a rest break at our hotel it's time for an authentic mouth-watering Hawaiian Luau at the Horsepower Ranch! Our talented team of beautiful performers consist of entertainers from Walt Disney World, Universal Studios, Las Vegas Luau, Seaworld, and the Polynesian Cultural Center. They specialize in award-winning highly entertaining luau shows from start to finish with hula dancer performances from different Polynesian islands, such as Hawaii, Tahiti, New Zealand, and Samoa. Our shows combine hilarious luau humor with Polynesian cultural education and sure to entertain all ages, as well as the most dangerous Siva Afi fireknife (fire dancer) performance.

DAY THREE – After an included hot/cold breakfast at our hotel we take off to our third day's destination – The Kennedy Space Center! Our visit should be from 9 am to 5 pm.

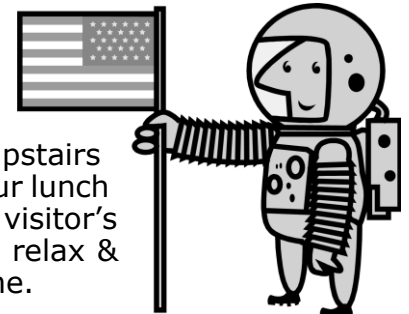

Space Shuttle Atlantis Exhibit – After entering the building between two full-size solid rocket boosters & the shuttles External Tank prepare for a lump in your throat as you are presented the Shuttle Atlantis in a dynamic in-flight pose. Make sure to try the Shuttle Launch Experience ride (a gentle ride for just about anybody) check out the Hubble Telescope mockup & much more!

Kennedy Space Center bus tour – Visit the gargantuan Vehicle Assembly Building, LC39 Observation Gantry, Pad 39B, The gigantic tractor that moved the Saturn Vs to the Pad & finally stop at the Saturn V Exhibit.

Saturn V Building – Gaze up in wonder as you stroll under the stages of what would have been Apollo 18. See the Lunar Module, Astronauts Space Suits, Kennedy Mission Control, and a Lunar Rover, Touch a real moon rock & much more! There is a very nice cafeteria at this location if all your exploring has you ready for a bite to eat! When you are done at the Saturn V exhibit the friendly Kennedy Space Center bus driver will return you to the visitor's center. On your way back, you may see an Eagles nest, possibly manatees & alligators too!

Kennedy Visitor's Center – Here, you can wrap up your day. Visit the IMAX Theater for an outstanding look at the International Space Station or the Hubble Space Telescope. Go to any of the informative space exploration exhibits to learn about the history of America's most exciting period. Finally, visit the gift shop for out of this world gifts & mementos, also the Gift shop usually has an actual astronaut in the upstairs section to answer questions & sign autographs. And if you didn't get your lunch at the Saturn V building there are several very nice restaurants at the visitor's center. After our fantastic tour of America's Space program sit back, relax & reminisce with your fellow Travel Is Fun friends as we travel back home.
